(For the Exclusive Use of Attorney's Diversified Services – Credit Department)

Firm, as named below, (FIRM), in the course of business, hereby requests that Williams Cole, Inc. DBA, Attorney's Diversified Services, (ADS) extend the right to charge goods and services on account. In the event of non-payment for said goods, the services by the FIRM, and as further consideration of extending credit to the FIRM, the undersigned, individually, hereby agrees to assume any such outstanding obligations.

The terms of the credit arrangement are as follows:

1. The FIRM shall pay ADS the money necessary to pay in full any amount due on an invoice upon receipt and no later than thirty (30) days. Should the FIRM fail to pay any amount due and owing within thirty (30) days of the date received, the firm agrees to pay finance charges in the amount of 3% per month of the sum due and owing. A dishonored check is subject to a $25.00 service charge.

2. This Agreement shall be binding upon the parties and their legal representatives, successors, and assigns.

3. This Agreement supersedes all agreements previously made between the parties relating to its subject matter. There are no other understandings or agreements between them.

4. No delay or failure by a party to exercise any right under this Agreement, and no partial or single exercise of that right shall constitute a waiver of that or any other right unless expressly provided herein.

5. FIRM shall be liable for any and all costs incurred in connection with collection of overdue accounts including, but not limited to, reasonable attorney's fees and costs.

6. Any liability on the part of ADS regarding services rendered is limited to the amount of the charges for the services.

7. This Agreement shall be construed in accordance and governed by the laws of the State of California. FIRM agrees that the venue of any disputes concerning this agreement shall be handled in the City of Sacramento, County of Sacramento, State of California.
